Thank you all for helping me with the Crandall-Dyer books. This is from my Mothers line of Dyer. Much of it was done and good so left it way it was. So all my addresses and e-mail will be wrong.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

Arlene Crandall stands beside a marker honoring her husband's ancestor who founded the family homestead in Westerly.

A gift born in frustration

R.I. couple, at odds with town, gives farm to Indian tribe

By Ken Franckling
SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE

WESTERLY, R.I. - Arlene Crandall, a straight-talking Swamp Yankee with no fondness for government, stands on a red granite outcropping behind the barn, showing the gently rolling homestead that has been in her husband's family since 1659.

It stretches farther than the eye can see, down past a swampy stand of cedars that earlier Crandalls harvested for timber.

The swamp is home to muskrat, otter, mink and osprey. Fields and woodlands are shared by deer, raccoons, rabbits and skunks "by the bushel." From the top of the barn, Crandall says, you can see the ocean.

A sea breeze is the only relief from the incessant heat this humid day last week as Crandall says: "I don't care what the town thinks about this crazy lady who gives $3 million worth of land away."

Tired of 20 years of battles with the town over rights of way through the property and unable to pay $7,629 in overdue taxes, Arlene and Irving Crandall on July 9 gave all of their land to its original owner: the Narragansett Indians.

"I just ran out of money and was tired of being harrassed all the time," Arlene Crandall said.

She says they decided against giving the land to other environmental preservation groups, such as the Nature Conservancy or the Audubon Society of Rhode Island, because they wanted to make sure the town would get no say in its future use.

This land, where Arlene Crandall, 66, has put on children's horse shows for the 4-H and often takes visitors on nature walks, has come full circle.

Family records show Elder John Crandall, a merchant from Newport, built his farm on land received in 1659 from the Indians' sagamore or area commander, Sacco. The Narragansetts say the grant was reaffirmed by formal deed in 1732.

Arlene and Irving Crandall still live in the house Elder John Crandall built in 1655. Under the terms of the July 9 land transfer, the Narragansetts agreed to pay all back taxes and give the Crandalls and their heirs lifelong rights to occupy the family homestead.

Town tax records show the Crandalls owned 350 acres of land valued at $1.37 million. Arlene Crandall says the property, which has never been surveyed, exceeds 700 acres.

The US Bureau of Land Management is expected to survey the two parcels of Crandall property and resolve those size and worth issues. The land will be registered as Indian land with the federal government. Once registered in trust, the land will be exempt from local taxation.

At the Narragansetts' office in neighboring Charlestown, tribal council member John Brown said the tribe may hold occasional public powwows and educational classes on the property, "but basically we want to see it left in its natural state."

"A pristine environment deserves better than to be tampered with by the hands of man," Brown said. "There are natural plants in the swamps that are on the endangered species list. There may be some there that may grow nowhere else."

In years gone by, Crandalls trapped muskrat and sold the skins. They gathered seaweed on the beach at Misquamicut three miles away, bringing it home by horse and wagon to fertilize the fields.

Irving Crandall's grandfather harvested 150 barrels of cranberries each year from a bog on the property. His father raised dairy cows and turkeys during World War II. Irving now runs a small salvage and recycling business.

Arlene says her battles with the town began over rights-of-way to Pound Road, which runs through the property. At one point, the town wanted to pave and straighten the dirt road and tear down a stone wall.

Last year, the town installed a water main along the road, which she says blocked culverts and destroyed the cranberry bog.

A dispute this year over property revaluation was the final straw. Even though the town made an adjustment in the assessed value of the property, Arlene Crandall said, it was too little too late. "I don't care if they charged us 50 cents, I was going to get rid of it," Arlene Crandall said.

"The Indians are the only ones who want to preserve anything. I told John Brown: 'If you can find the tax money, you own it.' He looked at me like I was out of my mind. He said: 'Nobody's given us a thing in our lives.'"

In spite of the ill feeling Crandall has toward local government, Town Manager Joseph Pellegrino said Friday that he welcomes the agreement because it shields the property against development.

"The family has always been very intent on protecting that property. We've always respected their rights," Pellegrino said. "We're glad to see that it will remain as open space and be maintained by the Narragansetts in its present state, in part because it will provide us with protection of our aquifer recharge area."

Down a slope from the barn, a lone elm tree casts a shadow over the family plot where Elder John, his two wives and two dozen descendants are buried alongside an Indian housekeeper for the earliest Crandalls.

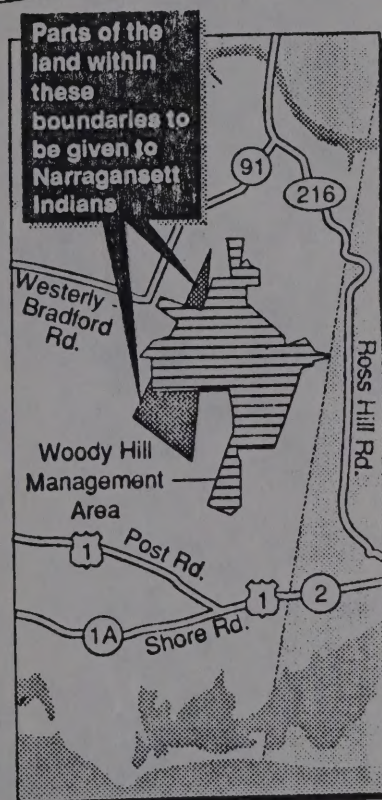

Family records show Elder John died of infection from a wound suffered in the Great Swamp Fight of Dec. 19, 1675, when, it is believed, he fought with the Indians against a force of 1,100 soldiers from Massachusetts, Connecticut and Plymouth colonies who slaughtered many Narragansetts and some Wampanoag refugees in the Indians' winter quarters in Charlestown.

"The Crandalls were among several families who fought alongside the Narragansetts and protected my ancestors during this war. That was not uncommon," Brown says.

He calls Arlene and Irving Crandall "people who are much like us. They are simplistic, but they carry a lot of charge and presence. These people represent a unique standard. It is obvious they know who they are and what they are."

Arlene Crandall uses less flattering terms.

"I'm known as a stinker and I'm proud of it," she said. "But I don't like being a celebrity. I can't get nothing done."

CRANDALL MEMORIAL STONE

There is a false lineage for John Crandall, claiming that he was the son of another John Crandall and Elizabeth Drake, an imaginary woman with an imaginary medieval pedigree.

Two early works on John Crandal and his descendants are rife with misinformation.^[1] The 1888 work by A.P. Crandall, Genealogy of Elder John Crandall and his Descendants, contains an introductory section (among others) which is now proved to be unfounded, and the second is the 1949 work by John Cortland Crandall, Elder John Crandall of Rhode Island and His Descendants, which seems largely to have been based on the mistakes of the first.^[1] These works make many statements without citing sources, and when later researchers sought documentation, they found either no evidence, or suggestion that our John Crandall was confused with a John Cranwell/Craniwell of Boston.^[1]

The fictitious claims include ones that John arrived in Boston, in 1634/5. Actually there is no evidence of his presence in British America prior to 8 September 1643, when he was a member of the Newport, Rhode Island Grand Jury. Many researchers have searched for any evidence of his presence in Boston or Salem and have found none.^[1] John Cortland Crandall contends that John was in Providence by 1637 and explains the lack of records with, "Many of the early Providence records were early destroyed." According to researcher, Jerry Huggins, "This is just simply not true - the early Providence records are very complete."^[1]

Origin

John was probably born in 1618 at the Parish of Westerleigh, Gloucestershire, England.^[2] He was baptized the 15 February 1617/8.^[2]

At the time, the Crundall family, generations of priests, had recently been displaced from their home, the Winterbourne church, by a powerful parishioner, Robert Bradston.^[2] As a result, not all the children's births were recorded in the usual manner.^[2] There is good circumstantial evidence that John was the son of James Crandall and his first wife, Eleanor (Unknown) Crandall.^[2] John had a half-sister named Ann baptized 30 December 1621, daughter of James and his 2nd wife, Joan.^[2]

There is some Welsh connection in the family's past, although it seems John was born in England. Family tradition, as evidenced by the book by A.P. Crandall, contends that the family had Welsh origins.^[2]

A.P. Crandall does give his source for the birth information in his 1888 work, Genealogy of Elder John Crandall and his Descendants, which is correspondence with a descendant (family tradition)^[2]

Family

John married twice.

- John married, as his 1st, to wife's name Unknown (not Mary Opp, as stated by John Cortland Crandall). She died August 2, 1670.^[2]
- John married, as his 2nd, to Hannah Gaylord, daughter of William and Anna (Porter) Gaylord of Windsor, Connecticut.^[2] She married, as her 2nd, to John Cottrell of Westerly.^[2]

Newport, Rhode Island

John is first found in British America in Newport, Rhode Island on 8 September 1643, when he is listed in the record as a Grand Juror.^[3] He is made freeman at Newport in 1655 and was mentioned as a Commissioner for Newport on 2 November 1658,^[3] and was chosen again as Commissioner on again on 17 May 1659 and on 22 May 1662.^[1] He is again listed as Commissioner for Newport on 17 June 1662 and on 12 May 1663.^[1]

Westerly, Rhode Island

On 29 June 1660, five Newport investors purchased the tract known as Misquamickuck or Misquamicut from Soso, an Indian Captain of Narragansett.^[2] Some of those original investors sold their portions and never settled there. John Crandall, together with six others and two of the original purchasers (Vaughan and Mosher), on August 27, 1661, petitioned the Rhode Island General Assembly for permission to settle on the newly purchased Misquamicut.^[2] Many years of boundary and jurisdiction disputes finally resulted in the formation of the town, and John Crandall's is the first name on the list of freeman in the town of Westerly on May 18, 1669.^[4]

Gifford, author of "The Probable Origins and Ancestry of John Crandall ...," called John Crandall "one of the settlement's leaders."^[2] In fact, Gifford believes that John may have been influential in the naming of Westerly, because his birth place was probably the parish of Westerleigh, Gloucestershire, England.^[2]

On May 21, 1669, the Governor and Council of Rhode Island appointed six men as Conservators of the Peace for the Colony. They were assigned to geographic areas in pairs, the first of the pair to also act as coroner for their area. John Crandal and Tobias Saunders were at Misquamicut.^[5]

In The Early History of Narragansett ..., among the listing of "Indian and Other Names of Places:"

Quequatnck or Qneqliathanic or Queqvantage - About twenty miles up Pawcatuc river, near where Crandal's mill stood on said river in 1681. See History page 65, and Westerly purchase papers.^[5]

Church

John was a Baptist and then later, a Seventh Day Baptist. It is unknown whether he was a Baptist in England or converted in Rhode Island. Gifford contends there was Baptist activity in nearby Bristol.^[2] In 1651, John, with Rev. John Clarke and Obadiah Holmes, were arrested as Anabaptists and fined (John's fine was £5).^[1] John Crandall was the first Elder of the Baptist Society of Westerly.^[2]

John died in 1676 at Newport, Rhode Island.^[2]

Note

Some of the following information is questionable (no sources, or since dis-proved) Billups-130 20:26, 6 January 2015 (EST) (see above)^[6]

John may have been born in Monmouthshire, England, in about 1612. He emigrated to Massachusetts in about 1634. It is said that he was in Salem in 1635 and in Providence, Rhode Island in 1637. He was identified with the Baptist Church in Newport in 1651 and was a freeman in 1655. He was one of the original purchasers of property from the Native Americans in 1661.

He probably married his first wife, name unknown, in about 1649. She died in 1670 and was buried on August 2. Together, they had seven children: John, James, Jane, Sarah, Peter, (Rev.) Joseph, and Samuel.

He married, second, Hannah Gaylord. John and Hannah had two children: Jeremiah and Eber.

Elder Crandall died before November 29, 1676.

Crandall Ground (2)...This is found about forty rods west fo the Pound Road, and west of the Old Crandall house (now the residence of Mr. Charles Crandall), and without inclosure. None of the fifteen or twenty graves are lettered. Here lie the remains of John Crandall, 1st, and his two wives; John Crandall, 2nd, and his wife Anna; Esther, Lewis, Hannah and Joshua Crandall; Lydia Crandall, wife of Charles; John Crandall, son of Charles.

From: REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND OLD FAMILIES OF RHODE ISLAND

Reverend John Crandall the first American ancestor of the Crandalls came from Wales to Boston, Mass in 1634/35. He was a baptist minister and was among those that were persecuted in the Boston Colony and so fled to Rhode Island to find the freedom of thought denied them in Mass. He settled first in Providence in 1637 and later in Westerly, R. I. where he became the first elder On July 21 , 1651 he and John Clarke and Obediah Holmes were thrown into prison in Boston for preaching and on July 31 he was sentenced to pay a pound s or be publicly whipped. He and his followers were instrumental in the settlement of Westerly but later he and his family moved to Portsmouth to escape the Indians and there died in 1676. He was one of the first preachers of the old Seventh Day Baptist Church. Twice married, his second wife's name was Hannah Gaylord and his children were John, Jane, Sarah, Peter, Jseph, Samuel Jeremiah and Eber. From this source came all the early families of the name in Rhode Island and Conn. as well as those that settled in New York.

Pg 1115 of same book John Crandall appears at Newport R.I. as early as the year 1651 where he was associated with the Baptists. He subsequently became became the first elder of that denomination at Westerly. He was a freeman in 1655, was commissioner several years

The first part of this profile has been checked, and inline sources are in place.

The part beginning with the heading "Note" seems mostly based on the unreliable sources, but some of it is not sourced.

Will leave it to the managers to decide what to do with those sections.

1658 - 1662 inclusive. He had a half a square assigned to him at Westerly in 1661, was deputy in 1667 and again in 1670-71. He died in Newport having moved there on account of the Indian War.

From: Elder John Crandall of Rhode Island and His Descendants, by John Cortland Crandall (1949)

JOHN CRANDALL, Colonial pioneer, First Baptist Elder, Deputy Commissioner, and statesman of Newport and Westerly, Rhode Island, the head of the Crandall family in America, was born in Monmouthshire, England, on the line between England and Wales in 1612. His mother is supposed to have been a Scotch lady. He came to Boston within a very few years after the landing of the Pilgrims, in 1634. Several writers have ascertained that he was associated with the Congregational Church at Salem as 1635 and that "he was certainly living in Providence as early as 1637" and while there are many reasons for believing these statements correct and that John Crandall was a close associate of Roger Williams was one of the founders of Providence, unfortunately it seems impossible certainly to confirm them. Many of the original Providence records were early destroyed.

The first valid documentary account of John Crandall in New England shows him to have been actively identified with the Baptist Church in Newport, July 21, 1651. His name next is found, with that of Matthew West in the Freeman's list of Newport, 1655.....

.....In 1669 he appears in "a list of the Free Inhabitants of the Town of Westerly" May the 18, (John Crandall's name headed the list). Directly after this he, with Tobias Saunders, was authorized by the colony to summon juries and hold courts, they being appointed "Conservators or His Majesty's Peace."

John Crandall was one of the original purchasers from Chief Soso of Narragansett of the Misquamicutt tribe, of the land comprising Westerly, from which Hopkinton was later formed. The townships of Westerly, Hopkinton, Charleston and Richmond, as they now are, were a tract called by the Indians Misquamicutt and on August 27, 1661 John Crandall was one of the nine signers of a petition to the Court of Commissioners for the Colony of Providence Plantations, in session at Portsmouth, for the purchase of that part of the tract which became Westerly. His house was near Burdens Pond and a part of it now stands, as one room in the homestead occupied by lineal descendants, of the ninth and tenth generations. Across from the house in the old orchard field is the original cemetery, in which twenty seven bodies are buried. There are three rows of graves containing nine bodies each. These rows of graves run parallel with a swamp near by. Elder John is buried in the row nearest the swamp in the end grave to the left as one stands facing the swamp. Next to his grave is that of his son John. Each of the twenty seven graves is indicated by a field stone some 14 inches in width, appearing four to eight inches above the ground set at the head while a smaller stone marks the foot of the grave. There is no inscription on any of the stones. On the 6th day of October 1932 A. Julian Crandall of Ashaway, Rhode Island and Rev. Wm. S. Crandall of Binghamton, New York, standing in the little historical burying ground, agreed that a suitable marker should be placed thereupon. They further concluded that a large native field granite boulder with a bronze plaque properly lettered, embedded in the same would be most suitable. The two third cousins resolved that they would sponsor the project. He was the first Baptist Elder at Westerly and held a number of public offices at various times. In 1658, 1659, 1662, 1663 he was a Commissioner, and was a Deputy to the General Court in 1667, 1670 and 1671, representing Westerly during the two latter terms.

He had lived prior to his settlement at Westerly, at Newport.....

.....1676, November 29. Under this date Samuel Hubbard, writes from Newport to Mr. Edward Stennitt in London, and after speaking of the devastation caused by King Philip's War, he recounts the recent deaths in the First Baptist Church: He says: "of the old church, First Mr. Joseph Torrey, then my dear brother John Crandall, then Mr. John Clarke, then William Weeden, a deacon, then John Salmon; a sad stroke in very deed, young men and maids to this day I never knew or heard the like in New England." Samuel Hubbard also wrote a few years later; "my dear brother John Crandall of Squamicut, is dead and his first wife a Sabbath keeper, the first that died in that blessed faith in New England."

His second wife was Hannah Gaylord, born 30 Jan. 1647, and probably was daughter of William and Ann (Porter) Gaylord, of Windsor, Connecticut. The said Hannah married a Crandall as is shown by the settlement of her brother Hezekiah Gaylord's estate in 1677.

The Coat-of-Arms (Crandall)
(National Research Society, Washington, D.C.)

Burk's "General Armory" and "Encyclopedia of Heraldry" does not list any Armorial Coat for the Crandall or Crandell Families. Since Crandall and Crandell are modifications of the Welsh name, CRAN, it is believed that those bearing the surnames Crandall and Crandell can lay claim to the Cran Coat of Arms. Riestap, in his "Armorial General," describes the Cran family Coat of Arms as follows:

ARMORIAL COAT:

Per fess; in top half or a crane argent; in bottom half argent the letter X sable.

EXPLANATION AND DESCRIPTION OF THE SYMBOLS AND COLORINGS OF THE ABOVE ARMORIAL COAT:

OR yellow or gold, denotes generosity and elevation of mind.

ARGENT white or silver, signifies peace and sincerity.

SABLE or black, denotes constancy and sometimes, but most rarely, grief.

THE CRANE or STORK is the emblem of Filial duty, and is also the emblem of a grateful man.

THE FAMILY CREST: (Belonging to the above Armorial Coat). A crane issuant. (No motto is given on the Cran Coat.)

Since the name Crandall is taken from the words "Crane Dale, a low lying section near the Welsh border inhabited by Cranes, it is reasonable to assume the significance of the Cranes in the Coat of Arms.

Col. A. Julian Crandall called on the writer in Florida and loaned him the Crandall Coat saying that he had investigated and had come to the conclusion that the coat was intended for the Crandall family and had several copies made for members of his family.

JOHN C. CRANDALL

A portion of the original home of Eld. John Crandall built about 1665 on his homestead near Westerly, R. I. The place has always remained in the Crandall name to the present day. This picture was furnished by the present owner Dr. Harry Franklin Crandall of Westerly, R. I. who appears as a boy of 12. in the picture. Others are Mrs. Margaret (Gavit) Crandall, his grandmother in the center and their Indian maid.

FIRST GENERATION

1. JOHN CRANDALL, Colonial pioneer, First Baptist Elder, Deputy Commissioner, and statesman of Newport and Westerly, Rhode Island, the head of the Crandall family in America, was born in Monmouthshire, England, on the line between England and Wales in 1612. His mother is supposed to have been a Welsh lady. He came to Boston within a very few years after the landing of the Pilgrims, in 1634. Several writers have ascertained that he was associated with the Congregational Church at Salem as early as 1637" and that "he was certainly living in Providence as early as 1637" and while there are many reasons for believing these statements correct and that John Crandall, as a close associate of Roger Williams was one of the founders of Providence, unfortunately it is impossible certainly to confirm them. Many of the original Providence records were early destroyed. The first valid documentary account of John Crandall in New England shows him to have been actively identified with the Baptist Church in Newport, July 1691. His name next is found, with that of Matthew West in a Freeman's list of Newport, 1655. John Crandall was the first Baptist Elder at Westerly, "Elder Crandall was well calculated both by talent and sufferings to lead his people in their conversions. He took an active part in the border difficulties between Massachusetts and Connecticut and subsequently between Connecticut and Rhode Island, determining the lines between the states."

"With other founders of Westerly Mr. Crandall settled on the Misquamicutt land before 1665. He was Commissioner for a number of years, served as deputy from both Newport and Westerly, and in other capacities which evidence that he was a man of importance. One of the seven sons of Elder Crandall the name became a common one and the family numerous in Rhode Island." (From "Representative men and old families of Rhode Island.")

Through the marriage of Elder John Crandall's sons and daughters, the family became allied with other important pioneer families who were prominent in the early history of Rhode Island, and New England. Among these were the Gorton, Babcock, Burdick, Hubbard, and Witter families.

The name or origin of his first wife is not known, but it is recorded that she died in 1670 and was buried August 2 of that year in Westerly. From examination of the birth and marriage records of their children, and the dates at which sons were listed as freemen, it may be inferred that John Crandall was married about the year 1649. He married, second, Hannah Gaylord.

Elder John Crandall died before November 29, 1676 at Newport where he was sojourning on account of the Indian War (King Philip's War).

The "Journal of American History" gives the following sketch of the life of Elder John Crandall, which is substantially correct with the probable exception of the account of his activities prior to 1651.

As early as 1635 Rev. John Crandall, who is believed to have been of Welsh ancestry, was living in Salem where, as elsewhere in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, there was at this time much opposition to all dissenters from the authorized tenets of the Puritans. John Crandall was the minister of the Salem church, but he adopted the opinions of the Baptists, which were very obnoxious to the Congregationalists, and in the autumn of 1635 he was dismissed as pastor. As did so many others of the early Baptists of New England he determined to settle in the Narragansett country. The Indians proved friendly and he obtained from them a grant of land. He has been called one of the founders of Providence. He was certainly living in Providence as early as 1637.

In 1669 he appears in "a list of the Free Inhabitants of the Town of Westerly" May the 18, (John Crandall's name headed the list). Directly after this he, with Tobias Saunders, was authorized by the colony to summon juries and hold courts, they being appointed "Conservators of His Majesty's Peace."

John Crandall was one of the original purchasers from Chief Sosea of Narragansett of the Misquamicutt tribe, of the land comprising Westerly, from which Hopkinton was later formed. The townships of Westerly, Hopkinton, Charleston and Richmond, as they now are, were a tract called by the Indians Misquamicutt and on August 27, 1661 John Crandall was one of the nine signers of a petition to the Court of Commissioners for the Colony of Providence Plantations, in session at Portsmouth, for the purchase of that part of the tract which became Westerly. His house was near Burdens Pond and a part of it now stands, as one room in the homestead occupied by lineal descendants, of the ninth and tenth generations. Across from the house in the old orchard field is the original cemetery, in which twenty seven bodies are buried. There are three rows of graves containing nine bodies each. These rows of graves run parallel with a swamp near by. Elder John is buried in the row nearest the swamp in the end grave to the left as one stands facing the swamp. Next to his grave is that of his son John. Each of the twenty seven graves is indicated by a field stone some 14 inches in width, appearing four to eight inches above the ground set at the head while a smaller stone marks the foot of the grave. There is no inscription on any of the stones. On the 6th day of October 1932 A. Julian Crandall of Ashaway, Rhode Island and Rev. Wm. S. Crandall of Binghamton, New York, standing in the little historical burying ground, agreed that a suitable marker should be placed thereupon. They further concluded that a large native field granite boulder with a bronze plaque properly lettered, embedded in the same would be most suitable. The two third cousins resolved that they would sponsor the project. He was the first Baptist Elder at Westerly and held a number of public offices at various times. In 1658, 1659, 1662, 1663 he was a Commissioner, and was a Deputy to the General Court in 1667, 1670 and 1671, representing Westerly during the two latter terms.

He had lived prior to his settlement at Westerly, at Newport.

There was much dispute between the colonies of Massachusetts and Connecticut as to their jurisdictions, and especially as to jurisdiction over grants in Rhode Island, which however, had been confirmed by a royal charter to their purchasers. A claim was made in 1662 by Connecticut of land reaching beyond Misquamicutt to Narragansett Bay. On October 17, 1667 a letter was sent by the Connecticut authorities to those of Rhode Island, complaining that John Crandall had taken possession of about a square mile of land, which he had laid out to his son, on the west side of the Pawcatuck River. On May 14, 1669 he and Joseph Torrey were appointed commissioners for the purpose of conferring with the Connecticut authorities concerning these land disputes. Certain individuals lent thirty five shillings to the Colony of Rhode Island in order to pay the expenses of Mr. Crandall to Connecticut. A few months later, on November 18, the governor and assistants of Connecticut sent a letter complaining that John Crandall and some others had appropriated a large tract of land in the township of Stonington, Connecticut. A reply to this complaint was sent by the Town of Westerly on March 11, 1669, signed by John Crandall and Tobias Saunders, in which all illegal seizure of land or other offense against the Colony of Connecticut was denied, and a counter charge was made; "but we are very sensible of great wrongs that we have sustained by them for many years." In 1671 the dispute grew so serious that Mr. Crandall, with others, were actually carried off by the Connecticut authorities and was imprisoned at Hartford. On May 2 of that year the Rhode Island assembly advised him not to yield to Connecticut's claims and assured him of the Colony's support and that his financial losses would be borne by the Colony.

The Reverend John Crandall was twice married. The name of his first wife is unknown, but she died in 1670 and was buried on August 2 of that year. He married, second, Hannah Gaylord.

The subjoining summary recorded events in the later life of John Crandall "of Newport and Westerly, Rhode Island" is from Austin's Authoritative Volumes "Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island," and "One Hundred and Sixty Allied Families of Rhode Island."

John Crandall was early associated with the Baptists, at Newport, subsequently becoming the first Elder of that denomination at Westerly.

1651, July 21. He, with John Clarke and Obediah Holmes, "being the representatives of the Church of Newport, upon the request of William Witter, of Lynn, arrived there, he being a brother in the Church, who by reason of his advanced age, could not undertake so great a journey as to visit the church. William Witter lived about two miles out of Lynn and the next day being Sunday, they spent in religious services at his house, and were there apprehended by two constables at the instance of the Massachusetts authorities, while Mr. Clarke was preaching, and the next morning they were sent to prison in Boston. For the dire offense of holding this little meeting, and on other frivolous pretexts Obediah Holmes was fined, imprisoned and whipped.

1651, July 31. He was sentenced to pay a fine of L5 or be publically whipped. He was released from prison upon his promise of appearing at next court.

1658; 59; 62; 63 Commissioner.

1661, August 27, he and eight others signed a letter of the Court of Commissioners of Rhode Island, concerning a tract of land at Westerly, that they and others desired approbation and assistance of Rhode Island in settling upon.

1661, September 9. He had half a share at Westerly assigned him.

1667, Deputy.

1667, October 17, Westerly. He was complained of in a letter from Connecticut to Rhode Island authorities, for having come on west side of Pawcatuck River and laid out about a mile square of land to his son.

1669, May 14. He and Joseph Torrey were appointed Commissioners to treat with Connecticut relative to jurisdiction of lands. The sum of 35 shillings was lent to the Colony of Rhode Island by individuals for John Crandall's voyage to Connecticut.

1669, May 18. His name was on the List of Inhabitants. (Westerly)

1669, November 18. A letter was sent him by Governor and Assistants, of Connecticut, complaining that he and others had appropriated a great parcel of Stonington township, and seeking for satisfaction.

1669, March 11. He and Tobias Saunders answered on behalf of Westerly denying any guilt in matter complained of; "but we are very sensible of great wrongs we have sustained by them several years." The letter closes: "As for your advice to agree with those, our neighbors of Stonington and the other gentlemen we hope that your colony and ours, will in the first place lovingly agree, and then we question not but that there will be an agreement between us and our neighbors of Stonington, and the rest of the gentlemen."

1670, June 19. He as Conservator of the Peace of Westerly, wrote a letter a little prior to this date to the Governor of Rhode Island, informing him "of entrance made into our jurisdiction by some of Connecticut, and of their carrying away some inhabitants prisoners."

1670, August 2. His first wife was buried.

1670, October 3. He deeded eldest son, John of Newport, "for love &c., all my goods, chattels, household utensils, and all other personal estate, movable or immovable quick or dead-- putting him in quiet and peaceable possession by payment of 1s in silver, by his son."

1670, 1671. Deputy from Westerly.

1671, January 30. Bills were allowed by Assembly, for hire of a boat to go to Narragansett with Mr. John Crandall Sr. in the year 1670 and for hire of Sarah Reape's horse for use of Mr. John Crandall to go to Hartford.

1671, May 2. He, having been "as is asserted" apprehended and now is in durance, by the Colony of Connecticut and having desired the advice of the Governor &c. of Rhode Island whether to give bond or to imprisonment, the Colony will bear his charges and endeavor to justify his actings therein.

1671, May 6. He was allowed 20 shillings, to bear his charge to Connecticut.

1675, January 23. In a letter from Ruth Burdick, to her father Samuel Hubbard, of Newport, she says, "Brother Crandall hath the ague and fever still, and have been but little amongst us this winter, Sister Crandall is brought to bed with a son, and is in a hopeful way." (Ruth Burdick's daughter Deborah Samuel Hubbard's granddaughter) later married Elder John Crandall's son (by his first wife) Joseph.

He died in Newport, having moved there on account of the Indian War.

1676, November 29. Under this date Samuel Hubbard, writes from Newport to Mr. Edward Stennitt in London, and after speaking of the devastation caused by King Philip's War, he recounts the recent deaths in the First Baptist Church. He says: "of the old church, First Mr. Joseph Torrey, then my dear brother John Crandall, then Mr. John Clarke, then William Weston, a deacon, then John Salmon; a sad stroke in very good, young men and maids to this day I never knew or heard the like in New England." Samuel Hubbard also wrote a few years later; "my dear brother John Crandall of Squamicut, is dead and his first wife, a Sabbath keeper, the first that died in that blessed faith in New England."

His second wife was Hannah Gaylord, born 30 Jan.

1647, and probably was daughter of William and Ann (Porter) Gaylord, of Windsor, Connecticut. The said Hannah married a Crandall as is shown by the settlement of her brother Hezekiah Gaylord's estate in 1677. Elder John Crandall died at Newport November 29, 1676. From the compiler the following data of Elder John has been furnished: That he was born probably Shropshire, England near the Welch border. The western portion of this county was formerly a part of Wales and later annexed to England. Hence the reason why some authorities have made the assertion that Elder John Crandall was a Welchman. One good authority states that he died 29 Nov. 1676 at the age of 67 yrs. which would indicate that he was born in 1609 and judging from the known ages of some of his associates, this would seem probable. His first wife by whom he had 7 children has not been positively identified but record shows that she died 1 Aug. 1670. (Mildred Small of Etna, Pa. states she found in the records in Washington, D.C. that the first wife of Elder John was Mary Opp who died 20 Aug. 1669) Elder John married second, Hannah Gaylord, b. 30 Jan. 1647; d. 3 Aug. 1678. After the death of Eld. John his widow married, second, John Cottrell, Jr. Hannah Gaylord was the dau. of William (William, John Nicholas) and Ann (Porter) Gaylord.

2 JOHN CRANDALL, of Eld. John, b. abt. 1649 in Newport, R.I.; d. 1704; m. 18 June, 1672 in Warwick, R.I. by John Green, J.P., Elizabeth Gorton, dau. of Samuel and Mary (Maplet) Gorton. John called himself the son and heir of John Crandall of Newport, deceased. He confirmed to his "beloved brothers Jeremiah and Eber, now resident of Newport, and in tuition of their mother, Hannah Crandall, a certain house formerly the Mansion House of my father John Crandall together with 200 acres thereto belonging, lying and being in westerly."

3 JAMES CRANDALL, of Eld. John, b. 1651 probably in Newport, R.I.; took oath of allegiance in Westerly 17 Sept. 1679; freeman in Westerly 1681.

(Howard Stillman Crandall of Westerly spent many years compiling the Crandall records. He worked especially on the line of James and the following is taken from his letter to Prof. Albert Rogers Crandall)

James became dissatisfied with the settlement of his father's estate (leaving all to the eldest son which was the old English custom); left home when he became 21, going down the Pawcatuck River which runs into the ocean near the end of Fisher's Island and made his home almost opposite Watch Hill on Long Island where he married a girl whose sister had married a man by the name of Reynor who lived in Suffolk Co. on the east end of Long Island. Because of his wife's religion, which was not of the Seventh Day Baptist faith, James was disowned by the rest of the family. James had quite a large family. His eldest son Samuel Nelson desiring a better education went to Manhattan. His father and the rest of his family removed to Cape May co., N.J. where the exodus of whalers on Long Island had found new fields to explore. After receiving his education Samuel went to Dutchess Co., N.Y. and probably had a large family. Soon after, his two older brothers followed him. Samuel had sons Eben, Samuel and James and probably others as there are records of many Crandalls in this locality and Schaghticoke, Rensselaer Co., N.Y. and Cold Springs, Putnam Co., N.Y. which seems to point to the fact that they are the descendants of James. Being dissatisfied in Dutchess Co. they after a time migrated to Rochester, N.Y. thence to Canada and finally some of them were in Ann Arbor, Michigan where we have Palmer Crandall and later Tanner Crandall. Many of these Canada Crandalls corresponded with Howard to establish their line with James. Also in the history of Tomkins and Tioga Counties, N.Y. is an account of the line of a Henry Crandall son of Eber and Dinah (Vaughn), b. 22 Sept. 1795 in Schaghticoke, Rensselaer Co., N.Y.; d. 9 Mar. 1882 in Millport, N.Y.; m. 19 Oct. 1816 in Smithville, N.Y.; Eliza, dau. of Charles Hill of Madison Co., N.Y. Eber Crandall was a native of Cold Spring, Dutchess Co., N.Y. having been born there in 1755. His father having lived and died there. His father James was of English ancestry settling on Long Island before the dawn of the 17th century. Eber moved to Argyle, Washington Co., N.Y. when Henry was an infant and after other moves he finally came to Tomkins Co. where he died.

The history of Tomkins Co. establishes without doubt another line from James, son of Eld. John. While some positive connections are missing from dates and locations it is safe to assume that they are in the line of James and they will be found in a later section of the genealogy.

He came to America with his wife Hannah, son Josiah and dau. Hannah who m. Thomas Barden. After the death of William Witter his widow Hannah came to Stonington, Conn. with her son Josiah and lived to a great age. (Witter Gen.) Josiah's first wife was Elizabeth, dau. of Thomas Wheeler whom he married 25 Feb. 1661/2 at Lynn, Hubbard was dau. of Samuel and Tacy Cooper Hubbard. Tacy (Tasy, Tase) Cooper came to Dorchester, Mass. 9 June 1634 from England and was married to Samuel Hubbard when she was 28 yrs. old. (Hist. of Windsor, Conn. from the Literary Diary of Ezra Stiles, Vol. 3 p. 28). Samuel Hubbard came to Salem, Mass. in 1633 and married Tacy Cooper 4 Jan. 1636 at Windsor, Conn. by Mr. Ludlow. They were both in the party that marched through the wilderness from Watertown, Mass. during the terrible winter of 1635 to become the founders of Conn. They were persecuted in Mass. for expressing their Baptist views. Samuel Hubbard finally in 1648 found refuge in R.I. where he was associated with Eld. John Crandall and others in founding the colony of R.I. which stands above all others for its democratic principles.

Rev. Joseph Crandall was an ordained minister of the Seventh Day Baptist Church in Newport, R.I. 8 May 1715.

11. JOHN CRANDALL, of John and Elizabeth (Gorton) Crandall, b. abt. 1673 probably in Kingstown, R.I. There is nothing more in any R.I. records about this John. John, his father, was a blacksmith. We do find records of a John who was a blacksmith and settled in Cape May Co., N.J. We have records to prove that on 25 Mar. 1707 he recorded his earmark and that his son John recorded his earmark 17 May 1725 in the same county. We also find a "John Jr." who was recorded as having 50 acres of land and a household in 1774. In 1768 this John was listed with 6 cattle and horses and 7 sheep. (Gen. Mag. of N.J. Vol. 14.) We have a John whom we assume was of the 7th generation from Eld. John b. in N.J. 1768; d. 20 Oct. 1838; m. Elizabeth _____. He came from N.J. to Brooklyn, Pa. where he died.

To substantiate the assumption that this is a line from John, son of John and Elizabeth (Gorton) the compiler of these records in 1940 stopped overnight at Troy, Pa. and talked with a Miss Sarah Crandall who belongs to the D.A.R. and who said it was a family tradition that he line was Eld. John, John, John. She did not give the 4th, 5th and 6th ancestral lines but named John of the 7th generation, Merrick of the 8th and Andrew of the 9th who was her father. She was born 5 Aug. 1885 and resided in Troy, Pa.

The N.J. Archives Vol. 32 records a John Crandall a blacksmith of Capr. May Co., N.J. whose will was dated 14 Apr. 1730. Inventory dated 20 Oct. 1730. Elizabeth Crandall and William John, both of Cape May Co. were named administrators.

Azariah married first and had 9 children and married 2nd and had 9 children.

Azariah lived in Montgomery Co. VA, and his first wife died there. Was married 2nd in Wythe Co. VA. Then moved to Silver Creek, IN. Maybe Clark Co. as that is where his 2nd wife died.

One source said Azariah may have been married a third time to one Sarah Bowman 31 May 1867, This would be another person as this Azariah died in 1830. Maybe the son.

Info from Richard Price Nov 1985 listed birth as ca 1771 maybe Dutchess Co. NY?, of Mongtomery Co. VA and after 1808 of Silver Creek, IN. He md 1st before 1790 Dutchess Co. NY and died 1830 IN. Prob. Harrison Co. His 2nd mg 9 Dec 1809 in VA was to Sarah Smallwood 1795-1864, dau of Wm L. & Rachel Smallwood. 1st wife Saloma Slocum who died Montgomery Co. VA ca 1809.

Not sure if Sarah Stevens is their child but thought so. Also picture of Thomas J. Stevens grave stone with first wife. not sure where this pic is?

CHILD 8 - Ira Crandall

Sources for Ira Crandall: Info from some of the children's families, cemetery records and all children listed by Mrs Frances Runne, New Albany, IN Feb 1980. Researched census records and located grave stones in the Bethlehem cemetery near Crandall, IN. Some info from the book "Elder John Crandall of Rhode Island and His Descendants" by John Courtland Crandall. Pub. 1949 NY

He was married first in Corydon, IN and is recorded there. He had consent of his father to marry. He was married the second time also in Harrison Co. IN to Julia Blankenbaker and she died and was buried in Clark Co. IL.

There was a question as to when the family came to Indiana prob. from Virginia. Some had said before 1850. Census shows they were there by 1850 but I believe they came much earlier as Ira was married in 1827 in Harrison Co. IN. So this shows he came before 1827 and since his father gave consent I believe his father was also there earlier. Ira and Polly's children all 14 were born in Harrison Co. IN. Don't believe he had any children by his 2nd marriage.

Located one land record of Ira Crandall and Julia Crandall, his wife of Harrison Co. IN to Sylvester Crandall of Clark Co. IL. Bk 10 pg 283-84 Dated 1865, 14 Nov. Recorded 19 Feb 1866. $ 1200.00. Land in Clark Co. IL of 100 acres off the East side of the south east qt of Sec 25 Twp 5 range 14 West in the district of land offered for sale at Palistine, IL containing 160 acres. Also 20 acres off the south west qt. of the south west qt of sec 25 Twp 9N range 14 W.

Ira Crandall's will recorded in Will Book D pg 384 Corydon, Harrison Co. IN. Have abstracted some of the info. Should get a copy. Will was written 17 Sep 1870 and probated 28 Jan 1885. His wife was Julia A. Crandall, son: Sylvester Crandall, daughter: Sarah S. Hurn, son in law: Joseph Markwell and daughter Emily his wife, son: Francis Marion Crandall, daughter: Caroline Burkett. Witnesses: David Bowman, Philip Krachman and Jas M. Fowler.

Not checked for him in census records of 1810, 1820, 1830 and 1840.

Did locate him in 1850 Harrison Co. IN.:

Ira Crandall 44 VA, carpenter, Polly 43 Ky, Delphina 16 VA, Marian 12 VA, Emily 12 Va, Sylvester 10 Va, Rebecca 8, Sarah E 3 Va. Also located him in 1860 Harrison Co. IN: Ira Crandall 54 NY, Polly 53 KY, Sylvester 19 IN, Sarah E. 13 IN. 1870 and 1880 have not been checked for him.

HUSBAND - Azariah Crandall

Info from book "Elder John Crandall Of Rhode Island And His Descendants" by John Cortland Crandall, pub 1949. Page 89.

Azariah married first and had 9 children and married 2nd and had 9 children.

Azariah lived in Montgomery Co. VA, and his first wife died there. Was married 2nd in Wythe Co. VA. Then moved to Silver Creek, IN. Maybe Clark Co. as that is where his 2nd wife died.

One source said Azariah may have been married a third time to one Sarah Bowman 31 May 1867, This would be another person as this Azariah died in 1830. Maybe the son.

Info from Richard Price Nov 1985 listed birth as ca 1771 maybe Dutchess Co. NY?, of Mongtomery Co. VA and after 1808 of Silver Creek, IN. He md 1st before 1790 Dutchess Co. NY and died 1830 IN. Prob. Harrison Co. His 2nd mg 9 Dec 1809 in VA was to Sarah Smallwood 1795-1864, dau of Wm L. & Rachel Smallwood. 1st wife Saloma Slocum who died Montgomery Co. VA ca 1809.

HUSBAND - Ira Crandall

Sources for Ira Crandall: Info from some of the children's families, cemetery records and all children listed by Mrs Frances Runne, New Albany, IN Feb 1980. Researched census records and located grave stones in the Bethlehem cemtery near Crandall, IN. Some info from the book "Elder John Crandall of Rhode Island and His Descendants" by John Courtland Crandall. Pub. 1949 NY

He was married first in Corydon, IN and is recorded there. He had consent of his father to marry. He was married the second time also in Harrison Co. IN to Julia Blankenbaker and she died and was buried in Clark Co.IL.

There was a question as to when the family came to Indiana prob. from Virginia. Some had said before 1850. Census shows they were there by 1850 but I believe they came much earlier as Ira was married in 1827 in Harrison Co. IN. So this shows he came before 1827 and since his father gave concent I believe his father was also there earlier. Ira and Polly's children all 14 were born in Harrison Co. IN. Don't believe he had any children by his 2nd marriage.

Located one land record of Ira Crandall and Julia Crandall, his wife of Harrison Co. IN to Sylvester Crandall of Clark Co. IL. Bk 10 pg 283-84 Dated 1865, 14 Nov. Recorded 19 Feb 1866. $ 1200.00. Also 20 acres off the south west qt. of the south west qt of sec 25 Twp 9N range 14 W.

Ira Crandall's will recorded in Will Book D pg 384 Corydon, Harrison Co. IN. Have abstracted some of the info. Should get a copy. Will was written 17 Sep 1870 and probated 28 Jan 1885. CHILD 9 - Sylvester Crandall (Continued)

Obit of Sylvester Crandall:

Sylvester Crandall, son of Ira and Mary Crandall was born in Harrison County, Indiana, December 21, 1840 and on Monday morning September 12, 1921 at 8:00 o'clock the angel of the Lord came and called him to his home on high.

He was the last of a family of 11 children, having lived with us here on earth 80 years, 8 months and 22 days.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Jane Dyer October 22, 1863. To this union 10 children were born, three dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn their loss a loving companion, four sons and three daughters: Ira of Fair Oak, Calif, Lawrence of Standard City, Calif., Ottis of Yale, Ill., Cam of Moonshine, Mrs Fannie Neibarger, Mrs Avesta Lingafelter of Moonshine and Mrs Ada Crutchfield, who lives at home; also 25 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was converted Feb 1, 1883 and later united with the M.E. Church at Wesley Chapel, afterwards moving his membership to the Zoar church on his own farm where he lived faithful until death. He was a great supporter to the church financially, as well as spiritually.

He enlisted in the Civil War and served as a soldier for his country and at the close of the war moved to Clark county where he lived until his death.

Funeral services were held at Butternut church conducted by Rev. D.I. Lingafelter after which the remains were laid to rest in cemetery near by.

Pall Bearers were: George Soward, Ransom Deverick, Frank Dehl, George Sharp, Lawrence Chapman and George Tyhurst.

Sylvester Crandall was located in these census records: 1850 Harrison Co. IN, Sylvester age 10 VA with parents; 1860 Harrison Co. IN Sylvester age 19 IN with parents; 1870, 1880 and 1900 prob. Clark Co. IL, but not checked to date.

Sources for Sylvester Crandall: BIRTH: Info from family descendants and date on cemetery stone. Have picture of the stone. Family said he was born in Harrison Co. IN but other records say they came from VA to IN after 1847 but before 1850. But believe that was wrong as Ira, the father, married in Harrison Co. IN 1827. MARR: Mg licence was recorded in Harrison Co. IN dated 22 Nov 1863. DEATH: Family info and obit from Clark Co. IL paper. He was 81 yrs 8 months 22 days of age. Services held at the Butternut Church with burial there. CIVIL WAR: Sylvester was in the Civil War and has DAR records from Washington DC. In Corp Co. E 38 IN Vol inf. He was living in IN at the time and after the war moved to IL.

Florence Adkisson sent some copies of pictures of Sylvester and Elizabeth Jane and their family and also of the home place and Sylvester in a Civil War uniform, which I have included.

Florence Crandall Adkisson prepared this article Sept 1992 on her grandparents and so I have included it here just as she wrote it.

Sylvester Crandall was born December 21, 1840, in Harrison County, Indiana and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 12, 1921. He married Elizabeth Jane Dyer, Nov. 19, 1863. She was born January 10, 1842, also in Harrison County, Indiana, and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 21, 1923. Both she and Sylvester are buried in Butternut Cemetery near their home beside the graves of infant son, Alva; 2 years old, Cora; and twin daughter, 3 year old, Ida Bell.

Sylvester grew up near Crandall, Indiana. He enlisted in the Civil War serving Co. E. 38th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. When he returned home from the service, he and Jane Dyer were married and moved to Clark County, Illinois, to a 160 acre farm they had purchased from his father, Ira Crandall. This area was known as the Moonshine Prairie, and they lived there the remainder of their lives.

Their first home was a log house, but as their family grew, they built a tall two story structure that seemed like two separate houses. The east half had two large rooms downstairs and a stairway leading up to two large bedrooms. The west half of the house had a large kitchen and dining area, a large pantry, a small bedroom, and another staircase which led up to the second story which was always called the boys'room. The home was near the Moonshine General Store which is still operating today. In those early times mail was delivered to the store once a week, and everyone for miles around came there to get their mail. Later a Moonshine Telephone Office was operated from there.

As the seven living children grew up, two boys (Ira and Lawrence) went to Chico, California, to work in the timber business. They lived and died there. Otis became a minister and farmed in Jasper County near Hunt City. Later he moved to the Sikeston, Missouri, area. Fannie Neibarger and Avesta Lingafelter lived on farms near by. Ada Dell, the yougest daughter and the surviving twin, married Robert Crutchfield and moved to Oklahoma. The youngest son, Cam, (my father) bought a farm adjoining that of his parents.

Sylvester was a good carpenter. He and some neighbors built the Zoar Methodist Church in the Southwest corner of his farm. There he and Jane served the Lord faithfully all their married life. Today there is no trace of the church, but I have a pulpit chair from the church which was dismantled in the 1970's. Grandma and Grandpa Crandall were not demonstrative people but somehow we know that they loved all of their twenty-five grandchildren. We knew that they lived by the moral standards established among friends and neighbors in that Zoar Methodist church. Anyone who wanted to come along with the minister was always welcome at the Crandall's dinner table on Sunday.

Sylvester and Jane were wonderful gardeners. Flowers and vegetables of many varieties were grown in beds with paths between them. There was a rose garden, a rhubarb patch, grape arbor, gooseberry and currant bushes. Nearby was a cherry orchard which also had plum, peach, pear, and even apricot trees. Apple trees grew on a 20 acre hill tract furnishing apples and cider for all the neighborhood.

I remember the brick cellar which had two steps going down into it. On the north side was a shallow, long, narrow, tin trough. A pipe ran from the well to the trough where cold water was pumped into it by hand every morning in the summer months. Here the butter, milk, cream, and other perishables were kept cool and sweet. The shelves in the cellar were filled with glass cans of beautiful fruits and vegetables most of which were sealed by a tin lid around which hot sealing wax had been poured. The cellar was cool in summer and kept apples, potatoes, carrots, cabbages, and turnips from freezing in the winter.

Nearby was a "smoke house" where meat was kept, the wood shed and a buggy shed. To reach the barn and stables one had to cross a small ravine on a "foot log".

Sylvester developed a lung problem in his early seventies. He no longer worked in the fields, but kept busy with the lawn and garden. When winter came he boarded a train in Martinsville, ten miles from his home, and went to Orlando, Florida, to spend the winter months. Jane refused to leave her home, and a widowed sister, Florence Miller, from Georgetown, Indiana, came to stay with her. The women were busy all winter piecing quilts, tacking comforters, making rag rugs, mending, darning, and embroidering "crazy quilts."

Grandpa always sent us a crate of Florida oranges for Christman. We wrapped them in tissue paper and kept them in a cool bedroom. We took them in our school lunches, and when we grew tired of eating them, we traded them to the other children for some of their "goodies" from their dinner pails.

I remember my grandpa sitting in a cane bottom chair on the recessed porch on the west house when he wasn't working in the yard or garden. He died at his home September 12, 1921. His grandson, Fred Crandall, remembers being called to come and sit at the bedside of his grandfather. Sylvester held his hand and told him to grow up to be a good boy. Sylvester then drifted off to sleep. Fred being only eight years old left the room and later was told that his grandfather was dead.

Grandma continued to live along in her home until the spring of 1923 when she suffered a light stroke and went to "live around" with her children. While staying at our house, she had improved enough to go to the garden to pick some green beans on a hot July afternoon. I was inside practicing my music lesson on our pump organ. When I paused in my playing, I heard a strange moaning sound and rushed outside to find Grandma lying on the ground in the bean patch.

Being a strong thirteen year old, I remember gathering her up in my arms and carrying her into the house and putting her on her bed. Being alone with her, I rushed to the telephone to call my Aunt Avesta. She said she would come right away and for me to call Dr. Bartmess in Annapolis. She had to harness her horse to the buggy and drive three miles to our house. Meanwhile, the doctor who drove a Model T car got there first. He said Grandma had suffered a very bad stroke. He was amazed that I had been able to carry her into the house by myself. I was quite a heroine for a few days.

Grandma lived until September 21. Although she regained consciousness, she was paralyzed and had to be cared for by family members.

Today as I write this in September of 1992, there is a modern house on the site of my grandparents' home. Several stately maple trees stand in the front yard and remind me that once my father played under them as a child as I also did. I cherish the memories of the old homestead.

So this shows he came before 1827 and since his father gave concent I believe his father was also there earlier. Ira and Polly's children all 14 were born in Harrison Co. IN. Don't believe he had any children by his 2nd marriage.

Located one land record of Ira Crandall and Julia Crandall, his wife of Harrison Co. IN to Sylvester Crandall of Clark Co. IL. Bk 10 pg 283-84 Dated 1865, 14 Nov. Recorded 19 Feb 1866. $ 1200.00. Land in Clark Co. IL of 100 acres off the East side of the south east qt of Sec 25 Twp 5 range 14 West in the district of land offered for sale at Palistine, IL containing 160 acres. Also 20 acres off the south west qt. of the south west qt of sec 25 Twp 9N range 14 W.

Ira Crandall's will recorded in Will Book D pg 384 Corydon, Harrison Co. IN. Have abstracted some of the info. Should get a copy. Will was written 17 Sep 1870 and probated 28 Jan 1885. His wife was Julia A. Crandall, son: Sylvester Crandall, daughter: Sarah S. Hurn, son in law: Joseph Markwell and daughter Emily his wife, son: Francis Marion Crandall, daughter: Caroline Burkett. Witnesses: David Bowman, Philip Krachman and Jas M. Fowler.

Not checked for him in census records of 1810, 1820, 1830 and 1840. Did locate him in 1850 Harrison Co. IN.:

ELLEN BURKETT

Ellen Burkett, daughter of the late Thos. J. and Minerva Jane Burkett, was born Sept. 17, 1865 near Wyandona, Mo. and passed away at her home in Wyandona at 3:00 a. m. March 23, 1940, aged 74 years, 6 months and 6 days.

She became a Christian in early life. She was a member of the church at Fairmont, and later transferred her membership to the Wyandona Christian church.

She leaves to mourn her going one sister, Minerva Burkett, and one brother, Marion Burkett, also one niece, Marie Smith, and one nephew, Dale Smith, whom she and her sister reared from childhood. She is also survived by other nieces, nephews, many more distant relatives, and many friends.

She was patient in her long illness and her disposition was such that she endeared herself to everyone.

A brief service was held from the home Sunday afternoon followed by a service at the Christian church in Wyandona at 2 p. m. conducted by M. P. Dawson, pastor of the Kahoka Christian church. The body was laid to rest in the Fairmont cemetery.

TESTIMONIAL—BARTELS

Kahoka, Missouri

Gentlemen:

My dear Bartels: Kahoka

than what has happened in this country where a far larger number of good citizens have had their homes taken away from them by mortgage holders through a process of law?—Editor M. R. Miller of The Cooperative Farmer.

GOATS UNDER SNOW DRIFT

John W. Cook, west of Yarrow, reports to the LaPlata Home Press that three of his goats which had been imprisoned in a snow drift for thirty-two days, were found recently. Except for being a little gaunt, the animals did not appear to have suffered much from their experience.

Mr. Cook said the goats disappeared during the first snow storm and he had given them up as being lost or stolen. But they had taken refuge under a fallen oak tree and were covered over by a snow drift and remained there until he happened to go near the place and heard them make a noise.

The warm weather had caused the snow drift to settle down and he could see them. As he approached the place, the goats hopped out and walked away. Upon inspecting the place, Mr. Cook saw where the animals had eaten roots of the tree for food, and they no doubt ate snow for water.

SEVEN MAPLE CAMPS

NEAR BENTONSPORT

There are seven maple sugar camps in operation this spring along Coppers creek near Bentonport in Van Buren county. So far the weather has not been ideal for the running of sap.

There are over 3,000 buckets catching sap in the various camps operated by Carl Wolf, Sam Datta, Logan Sadler, Sam Howard, Ray Kislung and Melvin Morris. The Marion-Warner camp is now the largest with over 700 buckets.

The maple sap is boiled down to maple syrup and some into maple sugar.—Farmington News-Republican.

REDUCING GREEN BAY

Pumps are at work draining the noted game and fishing grounds up river from Keokuk, for agricultural purposes—corn and buckwheat. A stubborn effort was made to save for wildlife and the finny fishes this unsurpassed realm; but, alas! Well, corn is king.

farm for the first few years of happy wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Guseman are former business men of Williamstown, having been mercantile business there at different times, afterwards living on a farm near Williamstown before coming to Lewistown about three ago.

Nine children came to fill the home with laughter and merriment during the dark hours. Those surviving are Mrs. Charles Brookhart, Colo.; Mrs. Helen Maxey, Colo.; Mrs. Wayne Reed, Colo.; Mrs. Hazel Legg, town; Mrs. Ethel Taylor, Stanley of Tulsa, Okla., and of Kansas City.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Guseman are enjoying good health and are looking after themselves and enjoying the fullest. This paper joins many friends in hearty congratulations and wish for them many happy years together.—The Record, March 20.

Ditto over on the Clark side.—Ed.

ST. PATRICK SCHOOL

The seniors will present a play on Sunday evening March 8 p. m. Admission 25c and the play is a lively three-act comedy continued series of laughs. It is a miss an evening of fun. The play between the acts.

The beginning of the baseball season finds the boys and girls in line with the bat and ball.

Recently Trooper Magnot Trooper Earl Davis gave interesting and instructive talks on the of safety to the student body. They are vitally interested and look forward to another visit from these gentlemen.

A NEW WAR WEAPON

Has been developed in a St. plant—a defender against the which it is said can climb faster than one mile a minute—the fastest climber in the world, speed of more than 300 miles an hour. And, an ingenious American has developed—he claims—the powerful explosive in a new manner soon to be demonstrated for the African government. Moreover, the country has developed the war planes. Notice: Keep the of the Sam's toes. They have come them.

March 24, 1980

Dear Gladys:

Sorry that I didn't get to write to you sooner. Was very glad to hear from you. You asked how Werncke was spelled with a che or che it is Werncke.

I do not have any other information on Mary (Bolly) Lane. If there was some way that I could find out where she was from, then maybe could find out about her father & mother. She came from Kentucky, but don't know where.

My aunt Louise Cotton, who will be 92 next month in April, I call her about everyday sometime go to see her. She told me that her grandfather & grandmother talked about Mary (B.) Lane and great grandfather Ira Crandall, he was in Kentucky when ^{they} got married at that time he was a Methodist ministers. They went to Texas for a short time (don't know where in Texas), They heard about U.S. Land-grants in southern Ind. came to Ind. where they raised their family, now place is called Crandell, Ind. and the Bethlehem Cemetery were most of the Crandells were buried.

I have been Bethlehem Cem. many times. I have most of my information which I have been trying to get together for about 8 years. Now I'm at a stand still. Your book sure helps me very much on your side of the family. The only place the Dyers are related to us was Robert Dyer who married (Hattie) Harriett DeWeese. They were very nice people.

Most of my information from my great Aunt Vernettie (Crandell) Wolf.

Holy Bible, my sister Hazel has the bible now. others from the library and Cemetery, and relation. There is so much more to get together, no end to it. If I ever find out more about any other, the others of Crandells sure will let you know.

Sorry that I didn't get to meet you while you were in Ind.

Sure hope to meet you someday.

We have done plenty traveling around have been most all states in U.S.

and went Germany, French, England Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and Iceland, parts of Canada & Mexico

In May we are going up east for a week or two to see some of my husband's people & friends around

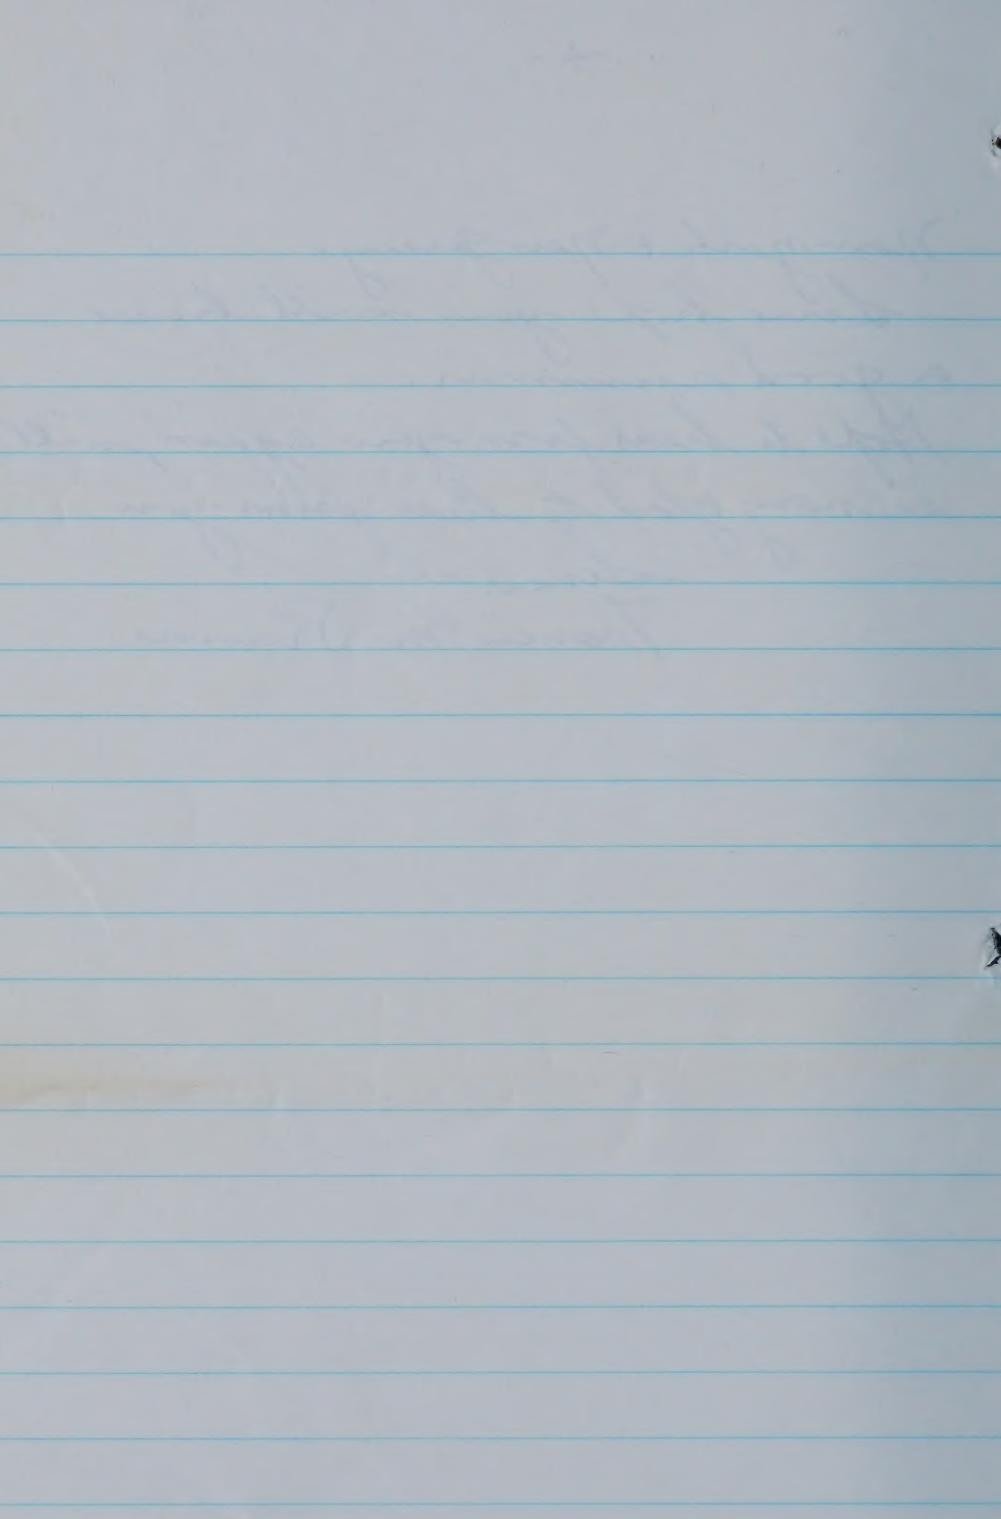

New York & New Jersey.

Sure hope you will have a good summer.

Hope to hear from you again, will be very glad to hear from you.

Sincerely

Frances M. Burne

Dear Gladys:

I'm sending you the information of our side Crandalls. I was over to Maude Jacques, who is my second cousin on Temple side of our family.

She gave me you address and that you like to know more about the Crandalls. My uncle Claude Temple is unable to write and I have more on the Crandalls from my Great aunt Vernettie Crandall Wolfe's Bible, her grandfather & grand-mother Ira Crandall and Mary Lane (Polly) Crandall. He was a Methodist minister & farmer, had 14 children, some died as babies. He was married second time to Julia Ann Blomhenbaker had no children.
I think you had most of this in your book, which I enjoyed. I will list the children of Ira & Mary Crandall which are -

2. Caroline Burdett July 1, 1829 - April 23, 1900

8. Silas Crandall Mar. 9, 1839 - Aug. 19, 1846
9. Sylvester Crandall Dec. 21, 1840 - Sept. 12, 1921

I only have our line, which is my great-grandfather Francis Marion Crandall which I'm named after him.

My typewriter is broken so I'm writing this by hand, hope you will make be able to read all,
and that it will help you out some with the Crandalls.

Obit of Sylvester Crandall:

Sylvester Crandall, son of Ira and Mary Crandall was born in Harrison County, Indiana, December 21, 1840 and on Monday morning September 12, 1921 at 8:00 o'clock the angel of the Lord came and called him to his home on high.

He was the last of a family of 11 children, having lived with us here on earth 80 years, 8 months and 22 days.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Jane Dyer October 22, 1863. To this union 10 children were born, three dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn their loss a loving companion, four sons and three daughters: Ira of Fair Oak, Calif, Lawrence of Standard City, Calif., Ottis of Yale, Ill., Cam of Moonshine, Mrs Fannie Neibarger, Mrs Avesta Lingafelter of Moonshine and Mrs Ada Crutchfield, who lives at home; also 25 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was converted Feb 1, 1883 and later united with the M.E. Church at Wesley Chapel, afterwards moving his membership to the Zoar church on his own farm where he lived faithful until death. He was a great supporter to the church financially, as well as spiritually.

He enlisted in the Civil War and served as a soldier for his country and at the close of the war moved to Clark county where he lived until his death.

Funeral services were held at Butternut church conducted by Rev. D.I. Lingafelter after which the remains were laid to rest in cemetery near by.

Notes HUSBAND - Sylvester Crandall (Continued) Pall Bearers were: George Soward, Ransom Deverick, Frank Dehl, George Sharp, Lawrence Chapman and George Tyhurst. Sylvester Crandall was located in these census records: 1850 Harrison Co. IN, Sylvester age 10 VA with parents; 1860 Harrison Co. IN Sylvester age 19 IN with parents; 1870, 1880 and 1900 prob. Clark Co. IL, but not checked to date. Sources for Sylvester Crandall: BIRTH: Info from family descendants and date on cemetery stone. Have picture of the stone. Family said he was born in Harrison Co. IN but other records say they came from VA to IN after 1847 but before 1850. But believe that was wrong as Ira, the father, married in Harrison Co. IN 1827. MARR: Mg licence was recorded in Harrison Co. IN dated 22 Nov 1863. DEATH: Family info and obit from Clark Co. IL paper. He was 81 yrs 8 months 22 days of age. Services held at the Butternut Church with burial there. CIVIL WAR: Sylvester was in the Civil War and hae DAR records from Washington DC. In Corp Co. E 38 IN Vol inf. He was living in IN at the time and after the war moved to IL. Florence Adkisson sent some copies of picutres of Sylvester and Elizabeth Jane and their family and also of the home place and Sylvester in a Civil War uniform, which I have included. Florence Crandall Adkisson prepared this article Sept 1992 on her grandparents and so I have included it her just as she wrote it. Sylvester Crandall was born December 21, 1840, in Harrison County, Indiana and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 12, 1921. He married Elizabeth Jane Dyer, Nov. 19, 1863. She was born January 10, 1842, also in Harrison County, Indiana, and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 21, 1923. Both she and Sylvester are buried in Butternut Cemetery near their home beside the graves of infant son, Alva; 2 years old, Cora; and twin daughter, 3 year old, Ida Bell. Sylvester grew up near Crandall, Indiana. He enlisted in the Civil War serving Co. E. 38th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. When he returned home from the service, he and Jane Dyer were married and moved to Clark County, Illinois, to a 160 acre farm they had purchased from his father, Ira Crandall. This area was known as the Moonshine Prairie, and they lived there the remainder of their lives. Their first home was a log house, but as their family grew, they built a tall two story structure that seemed like two separate houses. The east half had two large rooms downstairs and a stairway leading up to two large bedrooms. The west half of the house had a large kitchen and dining area, a large pantry, a small bedroom, and another staircase which led up to the second story which was always called the boys'room. The home was near the Moonshine General Store which is still operating today. In those early times mail was delivered to the store once a week, and everyone for miles around came there to get their mail. Later a Moonshine Telephone Office was operated from there. As the seven living children grew up, two boys (Ira and Lawrence) went to Chico, California, to work in the timber business. They lived and died there. Otis became a minister and farmed in Jasper County near Hunt City. Later he moved to the Sikeston, Missouri, area. Fannie Neibarger and Avesta Lingafelter lived on farms near by. Ada Dell, the yougest daughter and the surviving twin, married Robert Crutchfield and moved to Oklahoma. The youngest son, Cam, (my father) bought a farm adjoining that of his parents. Sylvester was a good carpenter. He and some neighbors built the Zoar Methodist Church in the Southwest corner of his farm. There he and Jane served the Lord faithfully all their married life. Today there is no trace of the church, but I have a pulpit chair from the church which was dismantled in the 1970's. Grandma and Grandpa Crandall were not demonstrative people but somehow we know that they loved all of their twenty-five grandchildren. We knew that they lived by the moral standards established among friends and neighbors in that Zoar Methodist church. Anyone who wanted to come along with the minister was always welcome at the Crandall's dinner table on Sunday. Sylvester and Jane were wonderful gardeners. Flowers and vegetables of many varieties were grown in beds with paths between them. There was a rose garden, a rhubarb patch, grape arbor, gooseberry and currant bushes. Nearby was a cherry orchard which also had plum, peach, pear, and even apricot trees. Apple trees grew on a 20 acre hill tract furnishing apples and cider for all the neighborhood.

Notes
HUSBAND - Sylvester Crandall (Continued) I remember the brick cellar which had two steps going down into it. On the north side was a shallow, long, narrow, tin trough. A pipe ran from the well to the trough where cold water was pumped into it by hand every morning in the summer months. Here the butter, milk, cream, and other perishables were kept cool and sweet. The shelves in the cellar were filled with glass cans of beautiful fruits and vegetables most of which were sealed by a tin lid around which hot sealing wax had been poured. The cellar was cool in summer and kept apples, potatoes, carrots, cabbages, and turnips from freezing in the winter. Nearby was a "smoke house" where meat was kept, the wood shed and a buggy shed. To reach the barn and stables one had to cross a small ravine on a "foot log". Sylvester developed a lung problem in his early seventies. He no longer worked in the fields, but kept busy with the lawn and garden. When winter came he boarded a train in Martinsville, ten miles from his home, and went to Orlando, Florida, to spend the winter months. Jane refused to leave her home, and a widowed sister, Florence Miller, from Georgetown, Indiana, came to stay with her. The women were busy all winter piecing quilts, tacking comforters, making rag rugs, mending, darning, and embroidering "crazy quilts." Grandpa always sent us a crate of Florida oranges for Christman. We wrapped them in tissue paper and kept them in a cool bedroom. We took them in our school lunches, and when we grew tired of eating them, we traded them to the other children for some of their "goodies" from their dinner pails. I remember my grandpa sitting in a cane bottom chair on the recessed porch on the west house when he wasn't working in the yard or garden. He died at his home September 12, 1921. His grandson, Fred Crandall, remembers being called to come and sit at the bedside of his grandfather. Sylvester held his hand and told him to grow up to be a good boy. Sylvester then drifted off to sleep. Fred being only eight years old left the room and later was told that his grandfather was dead. Grandma continued to live along in her home until the spring of 1923 when she suffered a light stroke and went to "live around" with her children. While staying at our house, she had improved enough to go to the garden to pick some green beans on a hot July afternoon. I was inside practicing my music lesson on our pump organ. When I paused in my playing, I heard a strange moaning sound and rushed outside to find Grandma lying on the ground in the bean patch. Being a strong thirteen year old, I remember gathering her up in my arms and carrying her into the house and putting her on her bed. Being alone with her, I rushed to the telephone to call my Aunt Avesta. She said she would come right away and for me to call Dr. Bartmess in Annapolis. She had to harness her horse to the buggy and drive three miles to our house. Meanwhile, the doctor who drove a Model T car got there first. He said Grandma had suffered a very bad stroke. He was amazed that I had been able to carry her into the house by myself. I was quite a heroine for a few days. Grandma lived until September 21. Although she regained consciousness, she was paralyzed and had to be cared for by family members. Today as I write this in September of 1992, there is a modern house on the site of my grandparents' home. Several stately maple trees stand in the front yard and remind me that once my father played under them as a child as I also did. I cherish the memories of the old homestead. Sylvester developed a lung problem in his early twenties. He no longer worked in the fields, but kept busy with the lawn and garden. Farewell, friends! yet not farwell
Where I am, you too shall dwell.
I am gone before your face,
A moment's time, a little space
When you come where I have stepped,
You will wonder why you wept;
You will know, by wise love taught
That here is all and there is naught;
Weep a while, if you are fain,—
Sunshine still must follow rain;
Only not at death, — for death,
Now I know, is that first breath
Which our souls draw when we enter
Life, which is of all life center.

SYLVESTER AND JANE CRANDALL

This has been prepared by granddaughter,
Florence Crandall Adkisson, Sept.1992.

Sylvester Crandall was born December 21, 1840, in Harrison County, Indiana, and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 12, 1921. He married Elizabeth Jane Dyer, Nov. 19, 1863. She was born January 10, 1842, also in Harrison County, Indiana, and died in Clark County, Illinois, September 21, 1923. Both she and Sylvester are buried in Butternut Cemetery near their home beside the graves of infant son, Alva; 2 years old, Cora; and twin daughter, 3 year old, Ida Bell.

Sylvester grew up near Crandall, Indiana. He enlisted in the Civil War serving Co.E. 38th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. When he returned home from the service, he and Jane Dyer were married and moved to Clark County, Illinois, to a 160 acre farm they had purchased from his father, Ira Crandall. This area was known as the Moonshine Prairie, and they lived there the remainder of their lives.

Their first home was a log house, but as their family grew, they built a tall two story structure that seemed like two separate houses. The east half had two large rooms downstairs and a stairway leading up to two large bedrooms. The west half of the house had a large kitchen and dining area, a large pantry, a small bedroom, and another staircase which led up to the second story which was always called the boys' room. The home was near the Moonshine General Store which is still operating today. In those early times mail was delivered to the store once a week, and everyone for miles around came there to get their mail. Later a Moonshine Telephone Office was operated from there.

As the seven living children grew up, two boys (Ira and Lawrence) went to Chico, California, to work in the timber business. They lived and died there. Otis became a minister and farmed in Jasper County near Hunt City. Later he moved to the Sikeston, Missouri, area. Fannie Neibarger and Avesta Lingafelter lived on farms near by. Ada Dell, the youngest daughter and the surviving twin, married Robert Crutchfield and moved to Okalahoma. The youngest son, Cam, (my father) bought a farm adjoining that of his parents.

Sylvester was a good carpenter. He and some neighbors built the Zoar Methodist Church in the southwest corner of his farm. There he and Jane served the Lord faithfully all their married life. Today there is no trace of the church, but I have a pulpit chair from the church which was dismantled in the 1970's. Grandma and Grandpa Crandall were not demonstrative people but somehow we knew that they loved all of their twenty-five grandchildren. We knew that they lived by the moral standards established among friends and neighbors in that Zoar Methodist Church. Anyone who wanted to come along with the minister was always welcome at the Crandall's dinner table on Sunday.

Sylvester and Jane were wonderful gardeners. Flowers and vegetables of many varieties were grown in beds with paths between them. There was a rose garden, a rhubarb patch, grape arbor, gooseberry and currant bushes. Nearby was a cherry orchard which also had plum, peach, pear, and even apricot trees. Apple trees grew on a 20 acre hill tract furnishing apples and cider for all the neighborhood.

I remember the brick cellar which had two steps going down into it. On the north side was a shallow, long, narrow, tin trough. A pipe ran from the well to the trough where cold water was pumped into it by hand every morning in the summer months. Here the butter, milk, cream, and other perishables were kept cool and sweet. The shelves in the cellar were filled with glass cans of beautiful fruits and vegetables most of which were sealed by a tin lid around which hot sealing wax had been poured. The cellar was cool in summer and kept apples, potatoes, carrots, cabbages, and turnips from freezing in the winter.

Nearby was a "smoke house" where meat was kept, the wood shed, and a buggy shed. To reach the barn and stables one had to cross a small ravine on a "foot log".

Sylvester developed a lung problem in his early seventies. He no longer worked in the fields, but kept busy with the lawn and garden. When winter came he boarded a train in Martinsville, ten miles from his home, and went to Orlando, Florida, to spend the winter months. Jane refused to leave her home, and a widowed sister, Florence Miller, from Georgetown, Indiana, came to stay with her. The women were busy all winter piecing quilts, tacking comforters, making rag rugs, mending, darning, and embroidering "crazy quilts."

Grandpa always sent us a crate of Florida oranges for Christmas. We wrapped them in tissue paper and kept them in a cool bedroom. We took them in our school lunches, and when we grew tired of eating them, we traded them to the other children for some of their "goodies" from their dinner pails.

I remember my grandpa sitting in a cane bottom chair on the recessed porch on the west house when he wasn't working in the yard or garden. He died at his home September 12, 1921. His grandson, Fred Crandall, remembers being called to come and sit at the bedside of his grandfather. Sylvester held his hand and told him to grow up to be a good boy. Sylvester then drifted off to sleep. Fred being only eight years old left the room and later was told that his grandfather was dead.

Grandma continued to live alone in her home until the spring of 1923 when she suffered a light stroke and went to "live around" with her children. While staying at our house, she had improved enough to go to the garden to pick some green beans on a hot July afternoon. I was inside practicing my music lesson on our pump organ. When I paused in my playing, I heard a strange moaning sound and rushed outside to find Grandma lying on the ground in the bean patch. Being a strong thirteen year old, I remember gathering her up in my arms and carrying her into the house and putting her on her bed. Being alone with her, I rushed to the telephone to call my Aunt Avesta. She said she would come right away and for me to call Dr. Bartmess in Annapolis. She had to harness her horse to the buggy and ^{drive} ride three miles to our house. Meanwhile, the doctor who drove a Model T car got there first. He said Grandma had suffered a very bad stroke. He was amazed that I had been able to carry her into the house by myself. I was quite a heroine for a few days.

Grandma lived until September 21. Although she regained consciousness, she was paralyzed and had to be cared for by family members.

Today as I write this in September of 1992, there is a modern house on the site of my grandparents' home. Several stately maple trees stand in the front yard and remind me that once my father played under them as a child as I also did. I cherish the memories of the old homestead.

OBITUARY

Elizabeth Jane, oldest child of Wm. Birchfield Dyer and Sarah F. Dyer, was born in Harrison Co. Ind. January 10, 1842.

She was united in marriage to Sylvester Crandall October 22, 1863. Ten children were born to this union, three dying in infancy. Soon after their marriage they moved to Clark Co. Ill. and settled on a farm where she spent the remainder of her life with the exception of a short time that she stayed with her children since the death of her companion, September 12, 1921.

She was stricken with paralysis July 30, 1923 from which she never recovered and had been a constant sufferer until she passed away at her home Sept. 21, 1923.

Those left to mourn are seven children, Ira of Fair Oaks, Calif.; Lawrence of Standard, Calif.; Ottie of Yale, Ill.; Cam of Moonshine, Ill.; Mrs. Fannie Neibarger, Mrs. Avesta Lingafelter and Mrs. Ada Crutchfield, 27 grandchildren and 13 great grand-children; also, two brothers and one sister, Mrs. Florence Miller, W. H. Dyer of Crandall, Ind. and Geo. Dyer.

On February 1, 1883 she was converted and united with the M. E. Church at Wesley Chapel afterward moving her membership to the Zoar church of which she remained faithful until death.

So long as health permitted she was always in her place at Sunday School and the various other services of the church. Her home was always open to the ministers of the gospel.

She has gone to her reward being 81 years, 8 months and 11 days of age.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 30, 1923 at the Butternutt church, Rev. D. I. Lingafelter officiating, assisted by Rev. Illk. The text used was "She has done what she could." Interment was made in the cemetery near by.

The pall bearers were: Loyd Lingafelter, Roy Lingafelter, Denver Crandall, Dale Neibarger, Glen Neibarger and Jonnie Berg.

OBITUARY--S. CRANDALL

Sylvester Crandall, son of Ira and Mary Crandall, was born in Harrison county, Indiana, December 21, 1840, and on Monday morning, September 12, 1921, at 8.00 o'clock the angel of the Lord came and called him to his home on high.

He was the last of a family of 11 children, having lived with us here on earth 80 years, 8 months, and 22 days.

He was united in marriage to Elizabeth Jane Dyer October 22, 1863. To this union 10 children were born, three dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn their loss a loving companion, four sons and three daughters: Ira of Fair Oak, Calif., Lawrence of Standard City, Calif., Ottis of Yale, Ill., Cam of Moonshine, Mrs. Fannie Neibarger, Mrs. Avesta Lingafelter of Moonshine, and Mrs. Ada Crutchfield, who lives at home; also 25 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was converted February 1, 1883 and later united with the M. E. Church at Wesley Chapel, afterwards moving his membership to the Zoar church on his own farm where he lived faithful until death. He was a great support to the church financially, as well as spiritually.

He enlisted in the Civil War and served as a soldier for his country and at the close of the war moved to Clark county where he lived until his death.

Funeral services were held at Butternutt church conducted by Rev. D. I. Lingafelter after which the remains were laid to rest in cemetery near by.

Pall Bearers were: George Soward, Ransom Deverick, Frank Dehl, George Sharp, Lawrence Chapman and George Tyhurst.

11 Sept. 1978

Dear Lenard;

For sometime I have been working on my Dyer land and the Crandall line of Illinois and with the help of Florence Crandall Adkisson and many others I have it almost complete. In going over all my information I find I have no information on the children of Dale Nelbarger at all.

I had met and talked with your father at great length at the reunion in Casey a few years ago and he was very interested in my history. He had given me the information about himself at the time and was going to send me the information on his children but as many unforeseen things happen he didn't have time to complete his task.

If you would fill out the enclosed form on your family, children and grandchildren it would be of great help to me. Also would you send me the mailing address of your brother and sisters so that I may write to them and get the information on their families before I finalize the writing of the book.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely;

Gladys Treadway

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Bowen Services

Services for Voorheis Bowen, 72, 1818 N. Philips ST., will be at 2 p.m. Monday in Parr United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Sylvan Nussbaum officiating.

Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday in Ellers Mortuary. The body will lie in state for one hour prior to services in the church.

He died at 6:05 a.m. Friday in St Joseph Memorial Hospital. He had been ill for several weeks.

Born April 23, 1903, in Crawford County, ILL, he was the son of Joseph and Claudia (Lincoln) Bowen. She was married in 1926 to Mary O. Neibarger, who survives. (should be He was md. copied as was in the paper.)

He was formerly employed by American Standard Corp. and was custodian in Darrough Chapel School from 1968 to 1974.

He was a member of Parr United Methodist Church and the International Brotherhood of Potters, Local 26.

Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs Burnum (Phyllis) Culbert of Kokomo and Mrs Charles (Joyce) Ancil of Russiaville; a foster son, Dell L. Neibarger of Kokomo; a brother, Lloyd Bowen of Casey, Ill, two sisters, Miss Evelyn and Miss Hazel Bowen, both of Casey, Ill; five grandchildren, two great grandchildren, three foster grandchildren and a foster great grandchild, a daughter, two grandchildren and two brothers preceded him in death.

His daughter Joyce Ancil wrote a Tribute to her father and read it at his funeral:

Daddy wasn't a learned man with a lot of education but he had wisdom beyond many who did.

He was a lover of all living things; and was greatly satisfied when he was working in his garden or doing some constructive thing outside.

He was a friend to anyone who needed a friend and would have done anything for anyone who needed his help.

He loved people and enjoyed so much laughing and joking with everyone he knew. He was a great practical joker but he always did this in great love.

He loved children and was so pleased with the contact that he had with the children at the school where he worked.

He loved God greatly and witnessed to many in his own way. He felt inadequate to pray or talk much about God in public but his private life was full of those special times. He witnessed through what he lived, not just what he said.

He was never too busy to take time to listen to children of his or his grandchildren and to give advice if this was requested. He never forced his ideas or opinions on anyone who didn't want them. His time was always yours when you needed it.

Notes
HUSBAND - Voorheis Bowen (Continued) He took time many times to fix a broken toy, kiss a skinned knee or help a bruised ego. He was never too busy to be there in any situation when you needed him. He never authored any books or music but he loved to hear good Christian music and to read God's word. Of all these goodly virtues and tributes, he leaves many wonderful, warm, close memories to all who called him friend, brother, uncle, grand-dad, husband or daddy. We were so privileged to have him for this long period of time.

Old Testament Reading		Isaiah 40:28-31
Psalm 23 (Said in Unison)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR DADDY

Daddy wasn't a learned man with a lot of education but he had wisdom beyond many who did.

He was a lover of all living things; and was greatly satisfied when he was working in his garden or doing some constructive thing outside.

He was a friend to anyone who needed a friend and would have done anything for anyone who needed his help.

He loved people and enjoyed so much laughing and joking with everyone he knew. He was a great practical joker but he always did this in great love.

He loved children and was so pleased with the contact that he had with the children at the school where he worked.

He loved God greatly and witnessed to many in his own way. He felt inadequate to pray or talk much about God in public but his private life was full of these special times. He witnessed through what he lived, not just what he said.

He was never too busy to take time to listen to children of his or his grandchildren and to give advice if this was requested. He never forced his ideas or opinions on anyone who didn't want them. His time was always yours when you needed it.

He took time many times to fix a broken toy, kiss a skinned knee or help a bruised ego. He was never too busy to be there in any situation when you needed him.

He never authored any books or music but he loved to hear good Christian music and to read God's word.

Of all these goodly virtues and tributes, he leaves many wonderful, warm, close memories to all who called him friend, brother, uncle, grand-dad, husband or daddy. We were so privileged to have him for this long period of time.

This was written by his daughter Joya + read at funeral

DEATHS

Bowen services

Services for Voorheis Bowen, 72, 1818 N. Philips St., will be at 2 p.m. Monday in Parr United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Sylvan Nussbaum officiating.

Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday in Ellers Mortuary. The body will lie in state for one hour prior to services in the church.

He died at 6:05 a.m. Friday in St. Joseph Memorial Hospital. He had been ill for several weeks.

Born April 23, 1903, in Crawford County, Ill., he was the son of Joseph and Claudia (Lincoln) Bowen. She was married in 1926 to Mary O. Neibarger, who survives.

He was formerly employed by American Standard Corp. and was custodian in Darrrough Chapel School from 1968 to 1974.

He was a member of Parr United Methodist Church and the International Brotherhood of Potters, Local 26.

Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Burnum (Phyllis) Culbert of Kokomo and Mrs. Charles (Joyce) Ancil of Russiaville; a foster son, Dell L. Neibarger of Kokomo; a brother, Lloyd Bowen of Casey, Ill.; two sisters, Miss Evelyn and Miss Hazel Bowen, both of Casey, Ill.; five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, three foster grandchildren and a foster great-grandchild. A daughter, two grandchildren and two brothers preceded him in death.

Complainers

ana when he calls for funds to keep the roads up? How many thousands of Hoosiers have to use the highways to travel to their places of work in order to earn a living? The number is enormous. Their interest in getting to work over passable roads is about as basic and vital an interest as could be imagined. They include not only well-to-do people, but many thousands whose incomes are modest.

Is, then, the Governor's proposal to allocate a large sum for highway improvement important to the people's welfare or detrimental to it? And another question might well be in order: How many of the critics who are carping now about Bowen's emphasis on highways would level their guns at him if he neglected the roads and the roads got worse and worse?

As so often is the case, the chronic complainers are those who would blast away at the head of government for asking "too much" for roads and then ambush him if he let the roads run down.

On June 2, 1895, she was united in marriage to Riley R. Lingafelter. He preceded her in death in 1954. To this marriage union three children were born: Roy, of near Casey, Lloyd, who preceded her in death in 1929, and Mrs Vertie Elliott of Martinsville. Mrs Lingafelter was a long time member of the Zoar Methodist Church until its closing, after which, she became a member of the united methodist church in Martinsville.

She passed away May 22, 1973, at the Casey Nursing Home in Casey, Illinois, at the age of 100 years, 8 months and 4 days. She leaves to mourn her passing, one son, one daughter, five grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. Two great grandchildren preceded her in death. She will also be missed by a number of nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Farewell, friends! yet not farewell
Where I am, you too shall dwell.
I am gone before your face,
A moment's time, a little space
When you come where I have stepped,
You will wonder why you wept;
You will know, by wise love taught
That here is all and there is naught;
Weep a while, if you are fain,--
Sunshine still must follow rain;
Only not at death, -- for death,
Now I know, is that first breath
Which our souls draw when we enter
Life, which is of all life center.

The TwentyThird Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ROY LINGAFELTER VETERAN OF WORLD WAR ONE SERVICE RECORD. Typed by Roy himself.

SOME TIME IN JUNE ~~1917~~ 1917 I WAS CALLED UPON TO REGISTER FOR THE FIRST DRAFT.

THEN ON SEPT 18-1917 I WAS CALLED TO MARSHALL HAVING BEEN EXAMINED FOR THE ARMY AND WAS INDUCTED TO SERVE IN ARMY. THERE WERE ABOUT FORTY OF US FROM CLARK COUNTY IN THE FIRST CALL UP. WE WERE FURNISHED HOTEL LODGING WITH MEALS.

THE NEXT DAY WE WERE MARCHED TO THE BIG FOUR RAILROAD DEPOT, AT MARSHALL. SOME TIME ABOUT ELEVEN OR TWELVE WE WERE SERVED COFFEE AND DONUTS BEFORE BOARDING THE TRAIN GOING SOUTH. WHEN THE TRAIN ARRIVED WE FOUND THAT THE EDGAR COUNTY BOYS WERE ABOARD IN ANOTHER CAR.

THE TRAIN THEN LEFT GOING SOUTH. WHEN WE GOT TO ROBINSON THE TRAIN MADE ANOTHER STOP TO PICK UP THE CRAWFORD COUNTY BOYS. I FOUND THAT EVERETT SHANKS, HE HAD WORKED FOR CAM CRANDALL WHERE WE LIVED.

WE DID NOT KNOW WHERE WE WERE BOUND TO. LATER AFTER DARK WE WERE ORDERED DETRAIN. WE LATER FOUND THAT WE WERE AT CAMP TAYLOR KENTUCKY.

THE NEXT MORNING THE SUN CAME UP ON THE WRONG SIDE OF BARRACKS I WAS IN FROM THEN ON I NEVER DID MY SENSE OF DIRECTION STRAIT. I WILL TELL MORE ABOUT THAT LATER.

WE WERE AT CAMP TAYLOR ABOUT TWO MONTHS. WE WERE CALLED THE DEPOT BRIGADE WE WERE THEN SENT TO CAMP PIKE NEAR LITTLEROCK ARKANSAS. WHERE WE TRAINED AND MADE PART OF THE EIGHTY-SEVENTH DIVISION, THE NATIONAL ARMY MADE UP MOSTLY OF DRAFTEES.

WHILE THERE I FOUND OUT THAT FROM MOM THAT SHE ^{HAD} A DISTANT COUSIN BY THE NAME OF MARKWELL, FORMERLY FROM INDIANA. CAMP PIKE WAS ABOUT 5 TO 7 MILES FROM LITTLEROCK. HE WAS A DENTIST THERE AND LIVED THERE. MOM HAD WRITTEN HIM ABOUT ME BEING AT THE CAMP. ONE SUNDAY MORNING THERE WAS A BIG CAR FOR THEM TIME DROVE UP TO OUR BARRACKS ASKED FOR ME. I WAS CALLED OUTSIDE NOT KNOWING WHAT WAS GOING ON, IT WAS MRS MARKWELL WHOM I HAD NEVER SEEN BEFORE. THEY ASK ME TO GET A WEEK END PASS, SO I COULD SPEND THE DAY WITH THEM. AFTER THAT I SPENT SEVERAL WEEK ENDS WITH THEM. THEY HAD NICE BIG HOME A NEGRO MAID, & A CHAUFFER. ONE TIME WHEN MOMM CAME TO VISIT ME WE SPENT THE WEEK END WITH THEM.

SOME TIME IN JUNE THE ORDER CAME FOR OVER SEAS REPLACEMENTS. SO THE WHOLE WAS STRIPPED FOR OVERSEAS DUTY, LEAVING NOTHING BUT THE SKELTON COMPANIES. WE WERE SENT TO THE PORT OF EMBARKATION I WAS ASSIGNED TO AN ENGLISH SHIP WE WERE ABOUT 14 DAYS ABOARD. WE LANDED IN LIVERPOOL ENGLAND SPENT THE 3rd OF JULY THERE. THEN PUT ABOARD SHIP TO CROSS THE ENGLISH CHANNEL WHAT A RIDE THAT WAS, IT WAS ROUGHER THAN THE OCEAN, AND AT NIGHT WE WERE KEPT BELOW DECK ALL NIGHT, LANDING THE NEXT MORNING AT A BEACH OF LAHARVE FRANCE, NO HOUSING OF ANY KIND JUST SAND AND ROCK.

THEN WE WERE PUT ABOARD ARMY TRUCKS HEADED FOR THE FRONT LINES AS IT TURNED OUT TO BE.

WE WERE THEN ORDERED OFF OF THE TRUCKS AND LINED UP IN A SINGLE LINE IN A WOODS OR IT SEEMED THAT WAY. THERE WAS A OAKLEY LINDLEY HIM WERE ALWAYS SIDE BY SIDE IN LINE DUE TO L, S IN OUR LAST NAMES. AN OFFICER CAME DOWN THE COUNTING THE NUMBER, WHEN HE CAME TO US, HE PUT HIS HAND BETWEEN LINDLEY AND ME, HE WAS SENT TO CO, H, I ENDED UP IN F CO. I DID NOT SEE HIM ANY MORE UNTILL HE CAME BACK TO AMERICA, WE WERE DISCHARGED AT CAMP GRANT ILL. WE MET AGAIN AND RODE THE SAME TRAIN WE HAD LEFT ON. I WAS GOING TO MARSHALL HE WAS GOING TO WEST UNION.

P. S. THE ABOVE MENTION COMPANIES, WERE PART OF THE SECOND BATTALION OF THE THIRTY-EIGHTH REGIMENT OF THE THIRD INF. DIVISION.

Roy Lingafelter's remembrances of his experiences in World War I as told to his cousin, Florence Crandall Adkerson in 1980.

I was on the front lines when we learned of the Armistice somewhere in a forest where we had our fox holes.
There was rejoicing & celebrating but we soon learned our company would have to stay in Germany in the army of occupation. All the men were split up and housed with German families.

Everyday we were called to the camp and had to drill, drill, drill.
We grew weary of nothing to do. One day our sergeant said, "How many of you men have handled horses? Step forward". I thought anything was better than doing nothing but drill drill, drill. So I and another man stepped forward. We were told we were to drive teams of mules to a distant village to pick up supplies.

Four mules were hitched to a heavy wagon. We left everyday early to drive the supply wagon.
I was assigned to ride along to to help load and unload. The driver was an expert horse handler. He drove those mules at breakneck speed. When we came through the small villages we learned they had square corners, but the driver never slowed down for the turns, taking the corners on two wheels. The villagers soon learned to get out of the way when they heard the wagons coming. It was never boring, but sometimes scary. It was a relief not to have to drill, drill, drill.

The house where we stayed had an upstairs where we were housed and had wooden stair steps. It wasn't long before our heavy boots were digging into the steps. The family feed us part of our meals. They were not friendly, but did just what they were told to do.

It was a relief when our year was up and we boarded a ship coming back to America. What a happy day it was when we stepped on American soil, the land of the free.

I spent about four months in fox holes overseas under fire and never got a scratch. When I got home I was in the barnyard doing my chores, stepped on a corn cob, fell and broke my leg. (Roy laughed when he told this story.)

MARTINSVILLE

Celebrates 80th birthday with first motorcycle ride

A few years ago, Vertie Elliott of Martinsville decided she wanted to do something different to mark her 80th birthday, so she announced to startled relatives that she wanted to take her first motorcycle ride then.

Sunday, June 10, 1979, her 80th birthday, she got her wish. Grandson Mike Conner of Robinson took her for a ride on his Harley Chopper, then on a Honda 350. Vertie reported the rides fun and wanted to take a much longer one when the weather was warmer.

The rides followed a buffet dinner in Vertie's honor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter (Margaret) Conner of Robinson. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott; Kathy Elliott; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Launer; Warren Elliott; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Elliott, Misty and Kelly; Seibert Elliott; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Conner, Chelle and Candy; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conner, Sandy, Jerry and Terry.

In the past Vertie has taken bus, train, airplane, and, of course, horse and buggy rides. She was kiddingly asked what she aimed to do on her 90th—maybe skydiving?

ty Farm Bureau volunteers,
the help of local Country panies agents, will be bringing all the facts about "Centsible
' during this special month-long paign.

he "Centsible Life" program is new to Farm Bureau. More than 35,000 Farm Bureau members already are taking advantage of this sensible insurance program, which has been known as Farm Bureau Franchise Life Insurance since the early 1960s.

A "Centsible Life" policy costs only $25 per year. If a Farm Bureau member signs up in July, the policy coverage will be effective September 1 to June 30, 1980--the normal renewal date--and the prorated first premium then would be only $21.

The benefit for your spouse and each child is 50 percent of your coverage as a member, to a maximum of $1,000. For example, for one simple $25 annual payment, a 30-year-old policyholder with a wife and two children would have $3,775 worth of protection for himself, $1,000 for his wife and $1,000 for each child. That's a total of $6,775 worth of life insurance protection for $25.

If your family status should change, such as an additional child, there is no need to notify anyone or fill out any lengthy forms. Your coverage will change automatically with your family.

Children are covered from 15 days of age to 22 years, provided they are single and living at home.

The benefit schedule of decreasing term life insurance gradually reduces annually as the insured grows older. Centsible Life is decreasing term; however, current policyholders have received additional coverage as a result of increases in benefits.

While Farm Bureau makes this decision on a year-to-year basis, the benefits have increased for the ninth straight year--at no extra cost to the policyholder.

Using an example a 40-year-old Farm Bureau member, his spouse and children, the policy shows the member has $1,870 of protection.
However, he bought his policy in 1970 and benefits have increased 80 percent since then. Therefore, his coverage actually totals $3,366 ($1,870 + 80% of $1,870). His wife and each child have $1,683 of insurance protection ($935 + 80% of $935).

"The Centsible Life" program is underwritten by Country Life Insurance Company but the program's development and maintenance is a service of Farm Bureau. The Censi-ble Life insurance program matches your age and family status--single, married, married with children or single with children.

Because more coverage is provided at younger ages, it will be to your advantage to not put off enrolling. Farm Bureau members up to the age of 70 are eligible to apply.

Isn't it time you joined the "Centsible Life"?

Your Farm Bureau neighbors will be bringing you more information about the "Centsible Life" program in July. Watch for them.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Cards of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Bruce Elliott would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to all of our wonderful friends, neighbors and relatives for the cards, flowers, food, telephone calls, prayers, and any other acts of kindness shown during the loss of our loved one. A special thanks goes to Clark Pulliam and the wonderful job he did to help us, Brother Jean Bennett, the ambulance drivers, the members of the Annapolis, West Union and Hutsonville American Legions for the beautiful military service they performed, the employees and customers of Bollin's Junction Four, CIPS, Briggs, and the many others who helped us to lighten the load at this sad time. We do not understand why, but we will all continue on and be strong as Bruce would have wanted us to do. May God bless each and everyone of you!

He will be sadly missed by: his nieces, nephews, many friends, Mrs. Marjorie Elliott, Kathy Elliott, Mrs. Vertie Elliott, Mrs. Gilbert [Fairy] Launer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Elliott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Seibert Elliott and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conner and family.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, calls and visits while I was in the hospital and since returning home. God bless and thank you all.
